Wine, Dine and Learn About Oysters

MANTEO -- If you love seafood and want to learn more about where it comes from, you'll not want to miss the North Carolina Coastal Federation's Wine, Dine and Learn about Oysters event. Hosted at the Coastal Provisions Market Wine Bar and Café, 1 Ocean Blvd, Southern Shores on Oct. 20, at 6:30 p.m. Chef Daniel Lewis will prepare a custom, multi-course menu for the evening featuring a variety of local oysters and complimentary wines.

While dining on these briny bivalves, the federation will share stories of their oyster restoration work and how these efforts help to keep our waters clean and healthy, producing some of the best tasting oysters. A local shellfish harvester will describe his experiences from the field and college students will talk about their recent oyster habitat research.

Seating is limited (this event often sells out, please register early) preregistration is required: $65 for federation members and $75 for nonmembers. Register online by visiting www.nccoast.org/events/ or call the federation at 252.473.1607. Reservations are nonrefundable and guests must be 21 years or older or accompanied by a paying adult.

Join us to learn about the importance of oysters in our waterways and how you can help.

About the North Carolina Coastal Federation

The North Carolina Coastal Federation is a nonprofit membership organization that works to keep the coast of North Carolina a great place to live, work and play. Through a variety of programs and partnerships, the federation provides for clean coastal waters and habitats, advocates to protect the coast and teaches and informs people about the coast and what they can do to protect it.

The federation operates offices in Ocean, Manteo and Wrightsville Beach, N.C.
