Wine, Dine and Learn About Local Seafood

Nags Head- Come learn more about the diverse bounties of the coast from a local waterman and enjoy a multi-course meal during the N.C. Coastal Federation's Wine, Dine and Learn about Mahi-mahi event at Café Lachine on May 12, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Chefs Johanna and Justin Lachine have put together a custom menu for the evening, featuring locally harvested Mahi-mahi, with appropriate wine pairings during the multiple courses. Otherwise known as dolphinfish or dolphin, Mahi-mahi are among the fastest growing fish and are distinguished by bright blue and green hues along their sides.

During the meal, guests will learn more interesting facts about this species from seasoned waterman and legendary storyteller, Captain Marty Brill. With his many years of experience on the water, in a variety of circumstances and industries, Capt. Marty will share his expertise and tales of adventure.

Also during the meal, the federation will give updates about local restoration efforts and opportunities to get involved. Learn about the importance of eating local seafood and how to help protect water quality and coastal habitats.

The price is $55 for federation members and $65 for non-members. Space is limited, and advanced registration is required by visiting www.nccoast.org or by calling the federation at 252-473-1607. Reservations are non-refundable and guests must be 21 years or older or accompanied by a paying adult.
