Coastal Adventure: What's Swimming With You in Our Coastal Waters?

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH -The waters where you swim and play is home to a world of amazing sea animals. Join federation biologist Ted Wilgis as we cast nets and get a first hand look at the creatures below the surface of our coastal waters. Prepare to get wet and be amazed, during this close encounter with the diverse forms of life in our creeks and bays. You can end your adventure by viisiting our aquariums for some fun eco-games and snacks at the federation's Fred and Alice Stanback Coastal Education Center.

Who: North Carolina Coastal Federation biologist Ted Wilgis

What: Coastal Adventure: What's Swimming With You in Our Coastal Waters?

Where: North Carolina Coastal Federation Fred and Alice Stanback Coastal Education Center in Wrightsville Beach

When: Thursday, July 2, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Cost: FREE

To Register: In person at the Federation's education center, 309 W. Salisbury St. in the Historic Square at Wrightsville Beach, or at www.nccoast.org. Registration can be made on the night of the event or in advance.

The Federation opened the Coastal Education Center with the goal of providing coastal education programs to the public. Discover Your Coast programs run through November and include a Coastal Speaker Series, Coastal Adventures, Touch Tank Tuesdays, S.T.E.M. Summer Camps, and Coastal Birding Cruises.
