NC WARN Climate Roadshow at North Carolina Coastal Federation

The roadshow aims to engage the public in an Emergency Climate Response campaign.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH - Durham environmental justice nonprofit, NC WARN, will be making a stop on their Climate Roadshow across North Carolina at North Carolina Coastal Federation's Fred and Alice Stanback Coastal Education Center 309 W. Salisbury St., Wrightsville Beach, NC, 28480, Thursday, Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. The roadshow aims to engage the public in an Emergency Climate Response campaign.

Duke Energy is in violation of their corporate charter. This grassroots education campaign works to create a critical mass of people calling on N.C. Attorney General Roy Cooper to alter or repeal the charter and require Duke Energy to stop: 1) burning fossil fuels, 2) blocking competition, and 3) polluting state government.

Join NC WARN Executive Director Jim Warren and others for a presentation and discussion on this new campaign, updated climate science, and what you can do about it. You'll leave with knowledge, hope, and power to take effective action to slow climate change.

The event is FREE. Donations will benefit the federation's education programming. For more information or with any questions, email rebeccap@nccoast.org or call 910.509.2838.

You can register in person at the federation's Education Center, 309 W. Salisbury St. in the Historic Square at Wrightsville Beach, or at www.nccoast.org.
